Report of the licensed conveyancer's trust records

(The auditor is not required to furnish with this report any document examined in relation to the audit.)

I/We have audited the above Licensed Conveyancers compliance with sections 80 and 84 of the Conveyancers Act 1980 (the Act) and the Conveyancers (Professional Conduct and Trust Account and General) Regulations 2008 (the Regulations) in relation to the above named Trust Records for the period(s) specified above.

Responsibility for compliance

The Licensed Conveyancer is responsible for compliance with sections 80 and 84 of the Act and the Regulations.

Auditor's responsibility

My/Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on whether the above Licensed Conveyancer has, in all material respects, maintained the above named Trust Records (s) in compliance with sections 80 and 84 of the Act and the Regulations. I/We conducted our audit in accordance with applicable Australian Standards on Assurance Engagements (ASAE 3100 Compliance Engagements), issued by the Auditing Assurance and Standards Board, to provide reasonable assurance that the above Licensed Conveyancer has, in all material respects, maintained the above Trust Records in compliance with sections 80 and 84 of the Act and the Regulations for the period(s) specified above.

My/Our procedures included obtaining audit evidence about the operation of the above trust records. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of non-compliance with the Act and the Regulations, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal controls relevant to the above licensed conveyancer's preparation of the trust records in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the above licensed conveyancer's internal control.

I/We believe that the audit evidence I/we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit conclusion.

Use of report

This compliance assurance report has been prepared for the above licensed conveyancer in accordance with the Act. We disclaim any assumption of responsibility for any reliance on this report to any person or users other than the above Licensed Conveyancer and the Director of Consumer Affairs Victoria, or for any purpose other than that for which it was prepared.

Auditor's conclusion

Unqualified

In my/our opinion, the above Licensed Conveyancer has, in all material respects, maintained the above named trust records in compliance with sections 80 and 84 of the Act and the Regulations for the period(s) specified above.

Signature of auditor

Date 5th May 2021

In circumstances where the assurance report is qualified (i.e. where the licensed conveyancer has not, in all material respects, maintained the above named trust records in compliance with the sections 80 and 84 of the Act and the Regulations, or where the auditor discovers that the above named trust records do not comply with sections 80 and 84 of the Act and the Regulations that there is an irregularity as defined by section 87 of the Act, the auditor must furnish an attachment to this report, include a clear description of all the reasons for non-compliance or irregularities and, unless impracticable, a quantification of the possible effect(s) on the conveyancer's trust records, and send the report and attachment to The Director, Consumer Affairs Victoria, Regulatory Transaction Centre, GPO Box 4567, Melbourne, VIC 3001. Alternatively, you can email it to trustaccounts@justice.vic.gov.au or fax it to 03 8684 0600.
